Surrounded by trees, with an S shaped drive hiding the house from the road, this home blends rustic warmth with thoughtful updates and an inviting layout designed to capture natural light and scenic views throughout. Step inside this reverse plan, chosen to highlight the primary living area views and natural light, to discover an updated, open-concept floor plan, highlighted by vaulted open-beam cedar ceilings and expansive windows that bathe the living spaces in sunlight. The spacious living room is anchored by a striking stone-faced wood-burning fireplace—perfect for cozy evenings. The large kitchen is both functional and stylish, with modern updates including newer flooring, a contemporary backsplash, and ample newer cabinetry. French doors open onto a large sunny south-facing deck, set for living, dining and relaxing in the fresh mountain air; including a top of the line BBQ off of a built in gas line. The main floor offers a versatile bedroom—currently used as a home office—along with a beautifully renovated full bathroom and a convenient main floor laundry room. Upstairs, the sun-drenched primary suite is a true retreat, complete with an updated ensuite, a walk-in closet, and a private balcony that overlooks the treetops and faces the mountain at Wintergreen. A generous third bedroom with a half bathroom and an open loft area provide additional flexible space. The fully developed basement features a cozy family room with a corner gas fireplace, a large fourth bedroom; currently set as a craft room, another full bathroom, and abundant storage. The garage is oversized with a 3rd bay added as part of renovations, a full subpanel and 220/50 amp wiring for an EV or hot tub; with a pad behind the garage.
