Step into the future while owning a piece of the past. This solidly built 1962 original-owner home sits proudly on a spacious 50x121 MC-1 zoned lot in a community poised for revitalization and growth. Whether you envision a stunning renovation, modern infill, or a fresh new development project, this property offers endless possibilities in a well-established neighbourhood known for its mature trees and community charm.

Inside, the home tells a story of care and craftsmanship. It features a functional layout with oversized bedrooms and generous living spaces – a true testament to the solid construction of its era. While the interiors remain largely original, they provide a perfect canvas for personal updates or a complete transformation. Hardwood floors throughout. Two Separate Entrances into the lower level, if needed.

Outside, enjoy the tranquillity of a mature, private yard – ideal for those who value space and serenity while tending to the garden.

Whether you're a family eager to restore its vintage character or an investor looking to unlock its redevelopment potential, this property offers opportunity at every turn.

Opportunities like this don't come often. Bring your vision and start creating today.
