This outstanding Palliser townhome is very well located and backs to a beautiful park that features some of the largest evergreens in the southwest. This end unit has newer basement development that features a large family room and plenty of storage. The kitchen has been expanded to include a sit-up peninsula, additional drawers and upper cabinets, open shelving, updated appliances (including a gas stove & fridge with a water line), quartz counter-tops, custom lighting, and newer cabinets. Both bathrooms have been updated. The upper level includes a very large primary bedroom, second bedroom, and an open loft area that can be used as a home office. The owners have installed custom window coverings throughout the home. The main floor has wide-plank hardwood floors. You enter the private back patio through a newer sliding door where there is plenty of room for a sectional couch, table and chairs, and a BBQ. Summers are more enjoyable with the recently installed central air conditioning (very quiet).
