Downtown Lacombe, Lacombe, Alberta

If you are looking for a home in a quiet part of town, then look no further than this property. Located in a quiet cul-de-sac within walking distance to the hospital and if one walks a few more blocks, you will find yourself in the heart of Lacombe's historical downtown. bed 2 bath home has seen a number of upgrades throughout the years. Newer vinyl windows on the main floor, new kitchen cabinets and kitchen appliances in 2024, new kitchen sink and faucet, and fresh paint throughout the main floor. Two large bedrooms and a 4pc bath are found on the main floor with an additional bedroom and 3pc bath in the basement. Outside the exterior of the home was recently painted along with new outside lights installed. The backyard is tremendous. Nicely landscaped with lots of space to play with the kids and dog or simply chill on your deck or under the large tree by the garage. Fully fenced with vinyl fencing on two sides and white chain link on the other side with a large gate that can be opened to allow one to park an RV in the back yard. Last but not least a large double detached garage to park some toys or vehicles within.
